3. God Can Handle a Lot all at once:

Nothing is too hard for God. He can be everywhere and do everything at the same time. When we load our lives with activities and events, we are trying to be God.

Related Scriptures: Matthew 19:26; Jeremiah 32:17 a. How many clubs, groups, or organizations do you (or family members) belong to? How many meetings, practices, or sporting events do you go to in a month? Is it too many? If so, what can you let go of? b. Are you responsible for the cooking, cleaning, and childcare at your house? Are you a caregiver for a family member or friend? Are you TIRED! Explain here.

4. God Created the World:

Related Scriptures: Genesis 1:1; Colossians 1:16-17

God created the heavens and earth. Under God's divine plan, everything works together according to His will. When we try to create a world the way that we would have it to be, we are trying to be God!

For every headache....
For every sleepless night....
for every silent scream......
There is a better way!

Let God Be God!

acknowledge God as the Loving Father of the following people:
I ackno	owledge God knows the outcome of the following situations:
I ackno	owledge God wants me to rest and I will do so in the following ways:
I ackno	owledge God knows my place in this world and has shown me in the following ways:

Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green.

It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.

Jeremiah 17:7-8
